

A Dementia Friendsgiving

November 10, 2026
12:30–3:00 PM ET

Dementia Friendsgiving (Virtual) Event Overview

Harvesting Connections: Celebrating relationships, community and the power of coming together.

Growing a More Connected Future

Keynote Speaker: Julia Hotz, author of The Connection Cure, explores how five core ingredients—movement, nature, art, service and belonging—can help address a wide range of health and well-being challenges, including dementia. Join us for an inspiring conversation about the power of connection and what it means for building a more connected future.

What We've Grown Together

Dementia Friendly America Year in Review: Celebrate the people, partnerships, communities and accomplishments that have helped grow the dementia-friendly movement.

Roots in the Community

Community Spotlight: Celebrate communities that are putting down roots and creating lasting change for people living with dementia and their care partners.

Seeds of Understanding

Dementia Friends Spotlight: Meet the people planting seeds of awareness, understanding and action in their communities.

Where Connection Grows

Memory Cafe Spotlight: Celebrate the people and places creating welcoming spaces where friendship, belonging and connection can flourish.

The Heart of Connection

Lived Experience Panel: Hear directly from people living with dementia and care partners as they share what connection, engagement and belonging mean to them—and what makes a meaningful difference in their lives.

Growing Connection: Why Relationships Matter

Explore the importance of relationships, belonging and meaningful connection with Dr. Fayron Epps, founder of Alter Dementia, and Dr. Herb Caldwell, founder of The Mama Joe Project.

Growing Together in Song

Sing-Along with Giving Voice and Dementia-Friendly Choirs: Come together through the universal language of music. Sing along, clap, listen or simply enjoy the joy of making music together.

A Garden of Community

Testimonials from DFA Community Sectors: Hear from leaders across sectors who help cultivate dementia-friendly communities through their work and partnerships.

Help Us Grow

A Call to Action: There are many ways to grow the dementia-friendly movement. Discover your next step—from becoming a Dementia Friend to joining or starting a community effort, connecting through music or a Memory Cafe or supporting Dementia Friendly America.

Dementia Friendsgiving After Party

3:10 - 4:00 PM ET

An informal gathering for fellowship, conversation, story sharing and connection. Whatever you bring to the table, we're glad you're here!
